

Curriculum vitae

DÓRA KIS-JAKAB

CONTACT INFORMATION

Contact address: 8 Nádor, Budapest, 1051, Hungary
Phone number: (0036) 70 7766952
E-mail: dora.kisjakab@gmail.com

EDUCATION

2012 – present

Ph.D. in Political Philosophy and Ethics: Eötvös Loránd University, Department of Philosophy (Budapest, Hungary)

2012 – 2014

M.A. in Interdisciplinary Medieval Studies: Central European University, Medieval Studies Department (Budapest, Hungary)

2010 – 2012

M.A. in Philosophy: Eötvös Loránd University, Department of Philosophy (Budapest, Hungary)

2011 Sept. – 2012 Jan.

Erasmus scholarship, Philosophy classes: University College Dublin (Dublin, Ireland)

2007 – 2010

B.A. in Aesthetics and Philosophy: Eötvös Loránd University, Department of Philosophy and Department of Aesthetics (Budapest, Hungary)

PROFESSIONAL APPOINTMENT

2014 – present

Junior researcher: Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Institute of Philosophy (Budapest, Hungary)

PUBLICATION

In press

“Rawls Explained – Review”: Phronesis. In Hungarian

2016

“Atomism or Communitarianism: Changes in Rawls’ Conception and Its Communitarian Criticism”: Working Papers in Philosophy of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Institute of Philosophy, See link: <http://www.phil-inst.hu/hu/publikaciok/intezeti->

kiadvanyok/working-papers-in-philosophy/632-working-papers-in-philosophy-2015-7, In Hungarian

“Rawls and the Contractual Tradition”: Publication of the Hungarian Society for Philosophy. In Hungarian

2015

“Dominican Influences On Aquinas' Notion of Mixed Government”: Annual of Medieval Studies at CEU. Vol. 21. Central European University, Budapest. In English

2013

“Humans as Essentially Social Beings In the Philosophy of Thomas Aquinas and Rawls”: Publications of the Hungarian Saint Thomas Aquinas Society II. In Hungarian

“The Possible Justifications for Legal Punishment”: Tanulmányok: Asteriskos 4. In Hungarian

2011

“From Heavenly Kingdom to Liberal Democracy (John Rawls)”: Phronesis (2011 spring-summer). In Hungarian. Link: <http://www.phronesis.hu/pdf/phronesis2010telKis-Jakab.pdf>

CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION

2016

“Religion, Radicalization and Identity: Michael Walzer”: Conference of the National Society of Ph.D. Students (DOSZ), Budapest. Talk given in Hungarian

2015

“The Similarities between Thomas Aquinas’ Mixed Government and the Government of the Dominicans”: Conference of the Hungarian Saint Thomas Aquinas Society, Budapest. Talk given in Hungarian

“Rawls and the Contractual Tradition”: Conference of the Hungarian Society for Philosophy, Szeged. Talk given in Hungarian

“The Place of Religion in Rawls’ Well-Ordered Society”: Conference of the National Society of PhD Students (DOSZ), Budapest. Talk given in Hungarian

2013

“The Rule of Man Over Man in Augustine and Thomas Aquinas”: II. National Student Conference. ELTE, Budapest. Talk given in Hungarian

2012

“Man as An Essentially Social Being In the Philosophy of Aquinas and Rawls”: Conference of the Hungarian Saint Thomas Aquinas Society. Budapest. Talk given in Hungarian

DEPARTMENTAL TALK

2015

“Atomism or Communitarianism: Changes in Rawls’ Conception and Its Communitarian Criticism”: Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Institute of Philosophy, Budapest. Talk given in Hungarian

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Eötvös Loránd University, Department of Philosophy:

Equality in Modern Political Philosophy (seminar for undergraduate and graduate students): 2015-2016/I. (17 students)

Contemporary Social Issues and Applied Ethics (seminar for undergraduate and graduate students): 2014-2015/I. (14 students), 2015-2016/II. (9 students)

SERVICE TO PROFESSION

Organizing conferences and lecture or seminar series:

In progress (scheduled to 2017, February)

“Philosophy between borders: nations, states, citizenship and immigration”: International conference, host institution: Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Institute of Philosophy, Budapest (invited speaker: David Miller)

2016

“Discussions on Social Philosophy” (interdisciplinary seminar series, taking place every second week since 2014), host institution: Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Institute of Philosophy, Budapest

“What is Liberalism?” (4-part interdisciplinary lecture series), host institution: Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Institute of Philosophy, Budapest

2015

“War and Peace in Political Thought: First Istvan Hont Graduate Conference” (September 17-19, Budapest), host institutions: CEU, Eötvös Loránd University, Pázmány Péter Catholic University. Link: <https://hontconf2015.wordpress.com>

Editing journal:

2015-

Phronesis, Hungarian journal of political philosophy. Link: <http://www.phronesis.hu>

LANGUAGE SKILLS

English (reading, speaking, writing: fluent), Spanish (reading: good), Latin (reading: with dictionary)