

LÁSZLÓ PÉTER AND HUNGARIAN HISTORICAL CONSTITUTIONALISM

Conference organised by

HAS SC ILS (Interdisciplinary legal researches group) and
HAS RCH IPH (Practical philosophy and history of political thought research group)

Organisers: Balázs Fekete and Ferenc Hörcher

Date: 16th April, 2015., Thursday, 12.30

Venue: HAS SC ILS Main Hall (2. floor)

Programme:

Norman Stone (former professor of modern history at Oxford University): Subjective introductory remarks

I. A MAGYAR TÖRTÉNETI ALKOTMÁNYOSSÁG (13.00-14.30)

Márton Zászkaliczky (HAS RCH ILS): The benning and survival of ancient constitutionalism in Hungary in the Middle Ages and the early modern period

István Szijártó (ELTE BTK): Constitutionalism of the estates and writing the history of the Hungarian estates in the 18th and 19th centuries

András Cieger (HAS RCH IH): The relationship of the state and its citizen in Hungary in the age of Dualism. The views of László Péter on the mechanism of the autocratic legal principle

András Varga Zs. (PPKE-JÁK): Our historical constitution and the Basic Law

Coffee break (14.30-14.45)

II. LÁSZLÓ PÉTER'S HERITAGE (14.45-16.15)

Miklós Lojkó (ELTE): László Péter's workshop as a historian and his mentality

Balázs Fekete (HAS SC ILS, PPKE-JÁK): László Péter: a critic of „the idea of Central Europe”?

Ferenc Hörcher (HAS RCH IPH, PPKE-BTK): László Péter and civil society in Hungary

Csaba Győry (HAS SC ILS, ELTE-ÁJK): Selbstbetrachtungen aus der Ferne. Liberal state of law (Rechtsstaat) and Hungarian nationalism